

PRAIRIE SMOKE

(Geum triflorum)

NORTHWEST MICHIGAN
INVASIVE SPECIES NETWORK

Protecting, enhancing, and promoting Northwest Michigan's natural communities through terrestrial invasive plant management and outreach.

Kathleen Voigt

Is prairie smoke right for your garden?

1/2-1.5 ft tall
1/2-1 ft wide

May-June

To learn more about how you can help protect our wild places, visit HabitatMatters.org

Key Features:

Alex Mueller
Moosehorn Ranch

Intriguing Leaves

Leaves out very early each season. Mature plants often form dense, attractive groundcover.

Brad Gocken

Mass Effect

Blooms look dramatic clumped, but then fade and look spent. Pair with plants with late season interest.

Olle Pellmyr

Visitors to Explore

Prairie smoke attracts bumblebees like this one, and other pollinators.