

TALL COREOPSIS

(Coreopsis tripteris)

NORTHWEST MICHIGAN INVASIVE SPECIES NETWORK

Protecting, enhancing, and promoting Northwest Michigan's natural communities through terrestrial invasive plant management and outreach.

Benjamin Vogt

Is tall coreopsis right for your garden?

3-8 ft tall

July-Oct

To learn more about how you can help protect our wild places, visit HabitatMatters.org

Key Features:

RW Smith

Flowers

Sunny yellow midsummer flowers bloom at the top of this tall plant.

Phillip Merritt

Easy to Grow

Prefers full to partial sun, and moist soil, and tolerates competition from other plants.

John Hilty

Visitors to Explore

Nectar and pollen attract a variety of insects including bumblebees and butterflies.