

PRAIRIE DOCK

(Silphium terebinthinaceum)

NORTHWEST MICHIGAN INVASIVE SPECIES NETWORK

Protecting, enhancing, and promoting Northwest Michigan's natural communities through terrestrial invasive plant management and outreach.

John Hilty

Is prairie dock right for your garden?

3-10 ft tall

July-Sept

To learn more about how you can help protect our wild places, visit HabitatMatters.org

Key Features:

GD Bebeau

Flowers

Large, sunny flowers in mid- to late-summer tower above the base of the plant

John Hilty

Leaves

Vase-like rosette of large basal leaves give interesting texture to the garden

GC Bebeau

Visitors to Explore

Flowers attract honeybees, bumblebees, and miner bees. Ruby-throated hummingbirds may visit.