

SPIDERWORT

(Tradescantia ohiensis)

NORTHWEST MICHIGAN INVASIVE SPECIES NETWORK

Protecting, enhancing, and promoting Northwest Michigan's natural communities through terrestrial invasive plant management and outreach.

John Hilty

Is spiderwort right for your garden?

1.5-3 ft tall

May-July

To learn more about how you can help protect our wild places, visit HabitatMatters.org

Key Features:

John Hilty

Flowers

Showy purple blooms open in morning and close in afternoon.

John Hilty

Adaptable

A hardy native that thrives in sun or shade and moist or dry soils.

Randy Tindall

Visitors to Explore

Pollen and nectar attract bumblebees and other pollinators in early summer